About:

Abalone House & Spa offers five star luxuries with serious seaside appeal. The boutique hotel is an eclectic visual tapestry of texture and authentic colours of Africa cocooned within a central poolside courtyard. Disappear into this world of genuine South African hospitality and be indulged. A 90-minute drive from Cape Town, Abalone House offers city-weary dwellers and discerning travellers an unashamedly sumptuous beachside escape, where extravagance and guest comforts take precedence.

Feast at the Restaurant at Abalone House, offering West Coast inspired cuisine that elevates this Paternoster destination to a new level of luxury escapism.

The Spa at Abalone House offers Africology products and treatments and is a destination where pampering and rejuvenation await.

Rooms:

Guests may select from three room types at Abalone House & Spa, of which some are located on the ground floor and others located on the first floor.

Standard Superior: These five rooms are situated on both the ground and first floor. They do not have sea views.

Superior Sea View Suite: This magnificent suite is situated on the first floor and has its own private patio with spectacular full views of the sea.

Luxury Superior: Situated on both the ground and first floor, these four suites have private balconies or garden patios. Some have limited sea views.

In addition to the comfortable communal spaces, guests to Abalone House & Spa can enjoy the peaceful outdoor courtyard and the roof deck with Jacuzzi offering magnificent ocean views.

Other in-room features that enhance all the air-conditioned suites include:

- Extra length King sized or twin beds with white cotton linen.
- En-suite bathrooms with bath, shower, under tile heating and heated towel rails.
