About:

Abalone House & Spa offers five star luxuries with serious seaside appeal. The boutique hotel is an eclectic visual tapestry of texture and authentic colours of Africa cocooned within a central poolside courtyard. Disappear into this world of genuine South African hospitality and be indulged. A 90-minute drive from Cape Town, Abalone House offers city-weary dwellers and discerning travellers an unashamedly sumptuous beachside escape, where extravagance and guest comforts take precedence.

Feast at the bistro-style Reuben's at Abalone House, celebrity chef Reuben Riffel's West Coast offering that elevates this Paternoster destination to a new level of luxury escapism.

The Healing Earth Spa offers ancient African traditions of healing and energy where pampering and rejuvenation await.

Rooms:

Guests may select from three room types at Abalone House & Spa, of which some are located on the ground floor and others located on the first floor.

Standard Superior: These five rooms are situated on both the ground and first floor. They do not have sea views.

Superior Sea View Suite: This magnificent suite is situated on the first floor and has its own private patio with spectacular full views of the sea.

Luxury Superior: Situated on both the ground and first floor, these four suites have private balconies or garden patios. Some have limited sea views.

In addition to the comfortable communal spaces, guests to Abalone House & Spa can enjoy the peaceful outdoor courtyard and the roof deck with Jacuzzi offering magnificent ocean views.

Other in-room features that enhance all the air-conditioned suites include:

- Extra length King sized or twin beds with white cotton linen.
- En-suite bathrooms with bath, shower, under tile heating and heated towel rails.

- A fully stocked bar fridge and top of the range Italian coffee machine.
- Flat screen TV, iPod docking station, CD and DVD player make lazing in the privacy of your suite a pleasure.
- Built-in electronic safes.

Conferencing:

The Hotel can host between 20-30 guests for conferences depending on venue choice. Additional accommodation for guests is available in the Abalone Pool Villas in Paternoster, conveniently located nearby.

Abalone House's plush executive boardroom is a cosy venue offering seating for up to 14 delegates in opulent high back chairs, around a large antique table. The boardroom at Abalone House features state of the art media and audiovisual equipment for conferences and workshop. In addition, Abalone House has its own small business centre offering additional internet access for guests.

Abalone House is able to offer special menus for conference delegates, including adding afternoon tea and gourmet dinners to our basic conference packages.
